On 27/04/2023, members of English literary association took part in the ‘Nature Camp’ organized by the Department of English. The venue selected for the camp was Nejar village, Udupi - the farm of Mr.Allen Lewis the proud alumnus of Milagres College, Kallianpur. The students had an exposure amidst of fruit bearing trees and plants took pleasure in the beauty of nature. Some fun based activities were conducted on. Activities started with ice breaking session where students mingled with each other. Later the students were divided into 5 groups. 15 minutes was given to the students to enjoy the delightfulness of the spot. Later they were asked to write 2 stories and a poem on nature.. Within an hour 10 stories and 5 poems were written by them. Later three members from each group were asked to read out the stories and a poem. It was indeed an excellent literary effort.

In the afternoon delicious Banana leaf lunch was served. Later Nature Queen Contest was held wherein each group was asked to choose a student and drape a saree to him/ her and beautify the queen by using natural things as ornaments. All the groups actively participated in this activity and had fun.

An amusing activity - ‘Orange Peel Off’ was conducted. It was asked the students to peel the orange without breaking its layer and retains the peel lengthier. All were enjoyed this fun game. Nature camp wrap up with Treasure Hunt in which students went around the farm in search of treasure. Once again they enjoyed amidst of nature.

The camp was concluded with an evaluation where the students expressed their gratitude towards the Department for organizing such a wonderful camp. There were 34 students, Dr Vincent Alva, Principal of Milagres College, Mrs Chandrika, Mr Caeser Gonsalves, and Ms Prathima , staff of English Department have taken part.
