Department, milagres college kallianpur

Venue: Under the mango tree

Participants: All staff and students.

The Women's cell of Milagres College Kallianpur celebrated international Women's Day under the mango tree. The programme was conducted to spread the words of importance of celebrating international women's day, Gender equality, rights of women and women empowerment.

Though the Colleges had summer holidays for students, students gathered in the Campus in a sizeable number to take part in the programme arranged by Women's Cell under the famous Mango Tree, a distinct open ground venue for many such gatherings. In her key note address Dr Harinakshi, HOD Dept of Kannada outlined the role of women in the society and also sought men's cooperation to strengthen, empower and encourage them in every walk of life. She also said we should respect ourselves.

Chief Guest Mrs Ivy Lobo from Kemmannu, while sharing her feelings encouraged young women to be brave, smart and ready to face life as if every is a new day....!

Very Rev Fr Valerian Mendonca correspondent, milagres educational institution congratulated all students and women present, on this unique Women's Day.
