An orientation program aims at strengthening the bond between an institution and its members. May it be between teachers and students, students and students and also between teachers. In order to develop a bond among the members of the college a session by Mr Anil Danthy on the concept of 'Understanding different types of people with reference to understanding different personalities. Stressing on the need of the topic Mr Danthy said our ignorance level would surely increase if we delay in understanding the personality differences between us in an educational set up. Getting to know about the whole concept would broaden our horizons of understanding of different people we live, study and deal with. The benefit our if this session as shared by the students would be that there would be lesser conflicts and better dealing with emotions and sentiments.

In his opening remarks for the session Dr Vincent Alva, the Principal of the college added up additional thoughts on the concept - Personality, and said the complete understanding of the types of personality would teach the students to remain kind to their fellow beings. Dr Jayaram Shettigar the IQAC coordinator of the college, Mrs Anupama Jogi, the NSS coordinator and Mr Ganesh Nayak from the department of commerce were present. Ms Yashaswini, Department of Computer Applications proposed a vote of thanks.
