Rovers- Rangers Report 2018-19

Cleaning national Heritage site at Barkur

Swachh Bharath Summer Internship (SBSI) team and members of department of history and rovers and rangers organised a programme of cleaning of Archaeological site at Barkur called KattaleBasadi. On 21-7-2018. KattaleBasadi is a small campus with two Jain Basadis, now in abandoned status. KattaleBasadi is located in Barkur town, about 5 kms from Brahmavara and 20 kms from Udupi in Karnataka. Kattale refers to Dark. The Basadi is called KattaleBasadi because of unique design. The Basadis are totally covered with stone walls and roof on all side, except one tiny entrance, only source of light. The entrance faces south and has some carvings to its side. One can take a look inside the basadi from outside. There are no deities inside at present and no pooja is performed. Kattalebasadi complex has 3 temples and some more ruins. One temple is dedicated to Jain Thirthankara while other two were meant for Shiva and Vishnu. Temple structures measure about 30-35 ft in length and 20-22 feet in width.

- An interactive session on, “HIV Patient and Society”

On 23rd August 2018 the department organised an interactive session on, “HIV Patient and Society” for the students of I BCOM. Mrs. Shanthi Naronha , Project Coordinator , Deepa Jyothi Foundation, Udupi was the chief guest. On this occasion she spoke about the causes, symptoms and preventive measures of Aids. She discussed at length the consequences of the disease on the individual, family and society at large. Mrs. Naronha advised the students to evolve a humanistic approach in dealing with HIV-Positive people. The ‘Positives’ are in need of love and care and they must not be treated as untouchables. The stigma attached to the ‘Positive People’ must be systematically solved by the citizens of the country. General awareness about the disease is more important among the youth, she emphasised. While sharing her experience as an HIV patient she answered the queries of the students.

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME-WALKATHON

Program Name: Walkathon

Organizers: Udupi District Police

Date: 14.09.2018, Friday at 9.30am

Chief Guest: Mr. Annamalai, SP Chikmagalur

Venue: Indrali to Ajjarakad

Participants: NSS Volunteers

N.S.S Unit of the Milagres College Kallianpur participated in the walkathon an awareness rally on drug abuse from Indrali to Ajjarkad on 14th September 2018 organized by Udupi district Police and Udupi District working journalists Association. Mr. Annamalai, Chikmagalur district Superintendent of Police was the Guest of Honor for the programme. Annamalai said that when there is demand, it's quite supply also be there. When demand decreases the case of supplying drugs have been also decreases. It is not possible to control completely only by police. But it responsible to every person to join with the police to control the drug addicts, he said. People may say that there are plenty of reasons to addict the drugs. But one of the most important reasons is depression. Illegal drug consumption is not the medicine for the depression. It is responsibility of teacher, Principal`s and parents to give valuable counselling with their children and student when their character has changed. The use of synthetic drugs is not the way to problems of drug user. Students should inform the police when supply or sale of drugs, he said. Mr. Laxman B Nimbaragi presided over the valedictory programme. Raghupathi Bhat, Local MLA, Dr. M Mohan Alva of Alvas Educational Institutions were addressed the gatherings. Kumarachandra Additional SP, Sandesh Shenoy and Deppak of Airtel, Nagaraj Rao Convenor of Press Club Udupi another were present on the dias.

Shashidhar Masthibail welcomed the gatherings while Deepak Jain delivered vote of thanks. Maichael Rodrigues compared the programme.
