IQAC Report Summary

Faculty Development Programs have motivated the staff members to be aware of recent trends and challenges in the field of teaching in respective subjects. It helps the institution to frame the long-term objectives of the staff as individuals and collectively as institution. It develops the skill and knowledge of teachers which is needed for the future development of the institution.

Periodic attending of professional development courses can shape the future of the staff members to build the students as future leaders. The duties and responsibilities of each staff member discharged completely without any hesitation.

IQAC has determined the need and requirement in improving the quality of teachers from time to time and instructed the staff members to attend the courses which are in the form of Refresher Course, Orientation Course and Short-term courses. The teachers who have attended the programs have shown improvement in adopting innovating teaching techniques with advanced knowledge.
