Vidyarthi Darbar: Voice of an Author

February 2, Kallianpur:

First segment of Vidyarthi Darbar-2018 was an interactive session with an International novelist, Mrs Renita D'Silva, from England.

Mrs Renita D'Silva, hails from Kallianpur, authored 6 novels so far and the 7th one is yet to release. During the interaction she said, "Literature is intimate slice of soul, one can derive the source for a literary text from an incident of one's everyday life." "Reading takes you to a different world, one can attain the fullest joy of life by the extensive reading," she added. In response to a question raised by the students Mrs D'Silva said, it was her mother who motivated to develop the habit of reading.

The discussion was initiated by Prof. Harinakshi, Department of Kannada. Renita of I BCOM A compeered the program.

Milagres College: an interactive session with Transgender

September 19: Milagres College, Kallianpur, in association with Vidyarthi Darbar organized an enriching interactive session with Transgender activists. Ms. R.J. Kajol, an actor and activist hails from Bramhavar, along with Ramya and Bindu, being the transgenders for decades, enlightened the students of the college, with the life stories of theirs.

"From being isolated and denied opportunities they are forced to stay away from family, education, job, etc. Disowned by the institutions of the society has driven many of the transgenders to begging and prostitution," said R.J. Kajol. "The social stigma attached to the LGBT community is the disaster to the bias-free world. Youth must spread the awareness amongst the people to treat LGBT community with respect," she added.
