The campers as a team had involved in the cooking process on the lap of Mother Nature. Campers used the available firewood for cooking the food. The team as a whole involved in chopping, cleaning, providing water etc. Once the food was prepared, it was offered to the Mother Nature as a gratitude for the fortunate resources provided. After that campers and villagers had tasty food near Samudaya Bhavana.

Desi sports meet

Desi Sports Meet organised to the campers as well as to the villagers. The famous Desi Game called “Lagori” was held. Both the team scored equal marks. The teams were exposed to the sportive spirit and the concept of friendly competition.

Shramadana and Guest Lecture (21/2/2019)

The campers had undertaken the cleaning programme around the Samudaya Bhavana, Avaregundha. The campers had removed unnecessary dry leaves and cleaned the yard of Samudaya Bhavana. The physical activity made the students to work together with joy towards a community beneficial service.

Post lunch, Mr. Ashith das, Agricultural and Ecological Researcher had conducted a session for the campers. The session was about the present situation of farmers in India, the problems of farmers, economic condition of India and the reason for conducting suicide by farmers and also about agricultural work. The session brought light on the integral problems of the farmers.

Meditation, Exercise and Yoga

Every morning meditation was conducted for the campers by the camp coordinator. This enabled the campers to concentrate and freshen up their inner strength. Then the morning session used to continue with yoga/exercise by the campers team.

Home Stay Concept

With the help of CORD, the camper's residing arrangement was done at villager's houses. This concept brought a huge difference in building the bond between the campers and villagers. The students by staying together were advised to adopt their life style and to help the villagers in their domestic works. The family traditions, practices, customs, food culture were observed and learnt by the campers by this home stay concept.

Valedictory (21/2/2019)

The valedictory programme was scheduled at 6.30pm in Samudhaya Bhavana. The programme started with prayer of three different religion by the campers. Mr.Vijay Singh Ronald David had presided over the programme. Mr.Vasu Naik,Chairman of Tribal Agricultural Association and President of Forest Rights Committee was Chief Guest of the programme. Ms.Vaibhavi, 1st MSW Student had read the complete Report of the camp. All campers shared their experience of the camp. Some of the villagers also shared their feedback about the campers. Mrs.Akshatha Shetty, Assistant Professor, P.G. Department of Social Work, Milagres College, Kallianpur spoke on this occasion. Mrs.Reshma, Camp Co-ordinator proposed vote of thanks to every one who were involved in executing the camp plan directly and indirectly.

Campers returned from Avaregundha on 22nd February 2019 with bunch of experience, learning and with sweet memories.

A one day orientation visit was organized to orient students on different settings in the field of their study. Spandana Trust, Jeppu, Mangalore has a strong base on the working for the marginalized communities for the past 50 years, an organization stated with the concept of charity, has now grown in to an institute with integrated approach to Community Development.

The prime focus of the institute is women empowerment with an inclusive approach for men too. The institute aims at developing women entrepreneurs', education, technical education, self – help, and income generation. The institute also strives to make use of the little space available around the house by using it for home vegetable gardens and bee keeping. The prime focus is on women, children, youth, elderly and the sick. The activities of the institute are focused upon every individual in the community with need based approach. Mr. Victor, Coordinator of Spandana Trust took the session about the functions of the organization.

Students also visit the Canara Workshops Limited, Maroli, Mangalore which exposed them to the field of labour (HR), and the human factor in the industry. Mr. Salim, the senior HR Head briefed about the personnel, their management, problems associated, unions and their functioning and the concept of Social work and its methods in industries.

A physical trip to their shop floor and an interaction with the employees was an added advantage to the whole visit.

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME-WORLD ENVIRONMENT

Program Name: World environment

Organizers: NSS

Date: 5-06-2021

Participants: NSS volunteers

Milagres College Kallianpur National Services Scheme unit organized World environment day on 5th June 2021 . NSS Programme Officers Mrs Anupamma Jogi and Mr. Melson DSouza instructed the volunteers to plant saplings. Volunteers planted saplings and circulated photos of same in the social media to create awareness about the environment. It is the responsibility of everyone to protect our environment and also fight against corona virus. To give positive messages to the society Nss leaders and Nss volunteers visited covid recovered persons home and planted saplings along with them.
