On 22/06/22 National Service Scheme, NCC and Rovers and Rangers had organised International Yoga Day in the college campus. College quadrangle was filled with hundreds of students assembled to perform few asanas of yoga. It was a feast to the eyes both to watch and with them. Well disciplined youth, in rows, different classes wearing varied colour uniforms, actively involved and participated in the basic yoga taught and performed by well-known Yoga Guru Mr ManjunathPatkhar, Sunaith International Foundation, a Trust popularising Yoga practice for good health and wellness, at various levels both in India and abroad

To begin the parade, IQAC Co coordinator Dr JayaramShettigar informed the gathering, Milagres Institutions in general and College in particular, is one of the front runners to have Yoga Classes, way back in 90's, much ahead of declaring this day as Global Yoga Day.

On behalf of the Students, Grace Reshal Lewis, I BCA, extended a warm welcome to the Chief Guest and briefly introduced to the audience. Principal Dr Vincent Alva, shared his feelings with a call to students and teachers to 'practice simple yogasana's everyday, which will definitely keep all of us fit and fine'.

Yoga Guru, in his address reminded the gathering that "Yoga is a gift of our ancestors having a history of more than 2500 years as records state it was taught and practiced in ancient Takshashila and Nalanda heritage Universities. Let us reap the best outcome by cultivating daily habit of dedicating few minutes every day, for our own good. This will help us to concentrate in studies, control body and mind and fill the surrounding with positive energy...." he explained.

Prof Sophia Dias, Mrs AnupamaJogi, NSS Officer, members of the teaching faculty, non teaching staff who were present, enthusiastically joined the exercise with students.

Then the instructor taught few simple and preliminary asana's to and in unison all followed him as the programme was lasted for about 45 minutes. To conclude the session Ms Sahana, I BCom A, proposed vote of thanks to all the participants and organisers, especially the NSS & NCC Units and volunteers.

Saturday, 4th December 2021; on the occasion of NCC day celebration, the Cadets of Milagres College Kallianpur, along with faculty members visited Planet Mars an Orphanage in Kallianpur, Udupi. Planet Mars is home for orphanage children. 25 NCC Cadets visited the place.

Planet Mars is an NGO based in Kallianpur, Udupi district, Planet Mars Foundation provides a safe home, quality education and all-round support to destitute and orphan girls. Established in 2016 by 15-year-old Rakshanda, a resident of the United Arab Emirates and a native of the district, Planet Mars Foundation has grown into one of the best NGOs in Udupi for girl child education today. At present 24 orphan children between 5 to 18 years of age are living in Planet Mars.

We reached the Orphanage at around 2:30 PM. The children of Planet Mars Orphanage were very pleasantly excited to receive the members. The children greeted us with great enthusiasm. We also met the caretaker. While interacting with the caretaker, we got to know the history of the orphanage how it was established.

On this occasion Our NCC cadets distributed stationery items, snacks, sports equipment for the children. The cadets interacted with the children. They also engaged them with various games and fun activities. All the children looked so excited and joyful.

The team spent an about two hours with the children before bidding goodbye to them. It was indeed very satisfying experience for cadets, as they could bring smiles on children faces. They realized that one contribute and understand his /her social responsibilities towards society.

Details of the Programme

NCC unit of Milagres College Combining with Smt Rukmani Shedthi College, Barkur organised Punit Sagar Abhiyaan (beach cleaning drive, awareness drive ) under the able guidance of 21 Karnataka Battalion NCC Udupi at Delta Beach on Monday, 21 December 2021. 70 cadets from both the college (Milagres College Kallianpur-60 cadets & Smt Rukmani College, Barkur-20 cadets) enthusiastically participated in the beach clean-up drive

Participants were provided with cleaning material such as hand gloves and gunny bags. Everyone was wearing masks and gloves throughout the cleanup activity. The cadets were split into a team of 10 members each, for picking up the litter. Each team was provided with a sack for collecting the waste.

During 3 hours of cleaning operation, around 25 bags filled with wastes and derbies collected from the beach. There was waste of all kinds on the beach, wrapper, shoes, remains of food stuffs, papers, food packages, and dangerous objects such as broken bottles, sharp metallic objects. The collected waste was placed at two points, where sorting of the waste based on the type of the litter was done after the clean-up.

Food was sponsored by Milagres College Kallianpur for all the cadets on the occasion of beach cleaning drive. DD News had been present today at the beach cleaning drive to capture the drive.
