Once Ms Chaitrali of II B.Sc, took charge of the stage as the anchor. To begin with the Bharata-natyam performance both to seek the blessings of almighty and portray the Lord Krishna's childhood days, with the swift movements by the troupe of young dancers gave a thrilling start to the programme. Another form of popular dance was Kangeelu, with the rich attire worn by the performing young artists of the College set the stage on fire with spellbound variety of steps and body movements. It was a curious wait for the audience to cherish Chakravyuha, an interesting sequence of scenes from epic Mahabharata in Badagutittu Yakshagana by the mixture of both male and female artists of the College was really wonderful. The ultimate and finale was Pili-vesha – as the young tigers and tigers rocked the stage with team of brass band given their best. It was not only a display of unique dance but also culminated with gymnastics and heroic virtues. To conclude the stage programme, the vesting NAAC Chairperson Prof Sumitra Kukreti, applauded the artists, choreographers, supporting team off and on the screen and the Principal and all the teachers for organising such a beautiful cultural event.
