Pilikula Biological Park is aesthetically one of the best designed premises in the country meeting all modern international standards of zoo management. The park serves as a good educational center for students of all ages in enriching their knowledge on conservation of wildlife.

Rani Abbakka Tulu Museum is a renowned voluntary organization registered as a charitable trust for studies in Tuluva History, cultural and folklore. The center that inspires the celebration of Tuluva history and heritage through art, research and community engagement.

Outcomes of Study Tour:

PILIKULA NISARGADHAMA:-

- Promote awareness among the public in general and conserve wild-life its habitat.
- Encouraging research and scientific studies useful for zoo and wildlife management.
- Conservation and Breeding of endangered species found in the Western Ghats.
- To function as a rescue center for orphaned wild animals in the region.

RANI ABBAKKA TULU ADHYAYANA KENDRA:-

- It is aimed towards unfurling the true spirit and essence of Tulunad and encouraging an in depth exploration of the history, culture and heritage of this land.
- Aims to prioritize cultural education to encourage and nurture cultural awareness amongst the border public.

Industrial Visit: The commerce department of Milagres College Kallianpur organized an industrial visit to GURUCHARAN INDUSTRIES in the Baikampady industrial area on 5th May 2024. 66 students of Final BCom with 4 faculty members were present. This visit was for students of final year B.Com and aimed to provide practical knowledge about the inside of an industry, its working and divisions. Mr.Danraj, Marketing department, explained about the drilling, tapping and threading machine. He practically showed work, where students saw the threading of spare parts and how the dust is collected using a magnet. Later we were also shown knife grinding, and surface grinding with the help of a leth machine, which had an accuracy of 60 micro leth that released dust in 2 minutes. He also explained the preface of the company that was promoted by Jayakar Shettigar in the year 1996 to manufacture plastic processing machines, allied machinery, spare parts and components of plastic processing and allied machinery

Rural Camps:

Nature Camp Report

Objectives

1. To inspire creativity and imagination by immersing students in a natural environment. 2. To enhance students' appreciation of nature and its influence on art and literature. 3. To provide a serene setting for self-reflection, encouraging the creation of poetry and stories. 4. To promote environmental awareness and the importance of preserving natural spaces.

Impact

1. Students developed a deeper emotional and intellectual connection with nature. 2. The serene setting fostered creativity, resulting in original works of poetry and stories. 3. The camp encouraged teamwork and collaboration through group discussions and sharing of creative outputs. 4. Increased awareness about the importance of protecting natural spaces through personal experiences.

Outcome

1. Students produced creative literary works, such as poems and stories, inspired by their time in nature. 2. A collection of these works can be compiled as a resource or publication to highlight the significance of nature in creativity. 3. The experience motivated students to engage in sustainable practices and appreciate the role of nature in their personal growth. 4. Improved skills in observation, expression, and critical thinking as students drew inspiration from the environment around them.

Report:

The English Literary Association organized a one-day nature camp at Hangarkatte on March 22, 2024. 39 students participated in this camp with the main intention of enhancing their writing skills inspired by nature.

The students were divided into teams to engage in various writing activities such as composing poetry and crafting stories. Motivated by the natural surroundings, they spontaneously created ten poems and ten stories.

To further refine their storytelling abilities, students were encouraged to narrate their stories as monologues, fostering individual creativity amidst the beauty of nature. The active participation of the students in these activities led to noticeable improvements in their creative styles.

During the afternoon, a meal was served on banana leaves, adding a unique and environmentally friendly touch to the camp experience. Gathering amidst nature, all members of the association enjoyed a meal together, fostering a sense of unity.

Following the lunch, several engaging games were conducted to foster leadership skills among the participants. Activities such as ecological sound imitations, weaving coconut leaves, passing to win, nest building challenges, Team snapshot contest, scenic wonder, and an orange peel-off contest were organized, with enthusiastic participation from the students.

The initiative for these activities was led by Mrs. Chandrika and Ms. Prathima, who played key roles in organizing and guiding the students throughout the camp. Mrs. Sylvia Cutinho was also present, providing support and encouragement to the students during the various activities. Overall, the nature camp proved to be a memorable and enriching experience for all involved, nurturing both literary talents and a deeper appreciation for the natural world.
